SEARCHING FOR THE NAMIBIAN WOMEN OF EXCELLENCE: 6th SEARCH

So many women are contributing to the upliftment of the poor and the needy, but sadly, their dedication and unselfish commitment to the community goes unnoticed to the nation.

Would you like to nominate such a special woman who contributed in the alleviation of poverty in your community?

Two Namibian Woman of Excellence, who have excelled in contributing where specific communities most need their unconditional support, will be financially rewarded by Standard Bank.

There are two categories:

STANDARD BANK RECOGNIZES 2 SPECIAL WOMEN WITH 2 AWARDS:

CATEGORY A: BEING A NATIONALLY BASED HUMANITARIAN AWARD

CATEGORY B: BEING A COMMUNITY BASED HUMANITARIAN AWARD.

Category A:

Women who have contributed either directly or indirectly to the less privileged.

Criteria for category A:

- Donations – financially or otherwise, eg food, blankets etc
- Paying school fees for children

Category B:

Women who without financial means, in the spirit of generosity and humaneness, without reward, sacrifice their time and strength to reach out to those in need of their charity (Women should sacrifice their own time and effort)

Criteria for category B:

- shelter (creating a home)
- feeding
- free medical treatment
- education
- to uplift the community
- creating community projects

The search is about an unselfish contribution these women have made to the community.
